Virtual Networking Tools

There are a number of ways to network virtually with fellow Columbia School of Social Work students and alumni. Below is a list of platforms, including those that are exclusive to the Columbia community:

- Columbia Alumni Community (UNI login required)
  Lifelong networking resource that is the only verified space to search for and connect with Columbia alumni across schools, degrees, graduation years, regions, interests, and more.
  - As a student, you will have access to alumni from the School of Social Work. After you graduate, you will have access to alumni from the wider university.
- Columbia School of Social Work (CSSW) LinkedIn Group (#80803)
  Dedicated LinkedIn Group for students and alumni of CSSW that provides a space for members to ask questions, find answers, post and view jobs, send messages*, make new contacts, share knowledge and resources, and more.
  - You can send 15 free 1:1 group messages to fellow group members each month without being directly connected.
- Columbia Alumni Association Network (#55739) - Alumni Only
  Similar to above but only open to alumni and includes graduates from the wider Columbia University network.
- Columbia School of Social Work (CSSW) Alumni
  List of CSSW graduates who have indicated "Columbia University - Columbia School of Social Work" as their alma mater on their profile.
  - You can identify alumni by where they live, where they work, what they do, what they studied, and what they're skilled at. Note that if you reach the commercial use limit for searching, your viewing options will be limited.
- LinkedIn Resources
  Free tip sheets and tutorials on building and leveraging your LinkedIn profile and presence, including on profile development and personal branding, networking, and job searching.
